Is The Key

To The Future

Seniorian

Class Of 1968,

Groveton High School

Groveton, N.H.

Dedication

To you, Mr. Dollard LaRoche, we, the Class of 1968 do humbly dedicate our Seniorian. Dolly, we have learned some wonderful things from our teachers at Groveton High School and we thank them, but from you we have acquired rich understandings not to be found in textbooks. You have been a wonderful example to us, holding in your hands the keys of friendship, humor, and pride. For these treasures, we thank you. As we leave, we hope that you will remember us and we will try to make you proud of us.

Thank you for always being there, for always being ready to help, and for keeping our school one that we were proud of.

To Dolly, The Man With The Keys

Principal's Address

Our education includes all of our conscious moments with their many influences and impressions.

John Ruskin, English author and critic, put it this way:

Education is a painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise; but, above all, by example.

The sum of all these experiences helps to make us what we are and what we'll become.

FINANCIAL COUP REVEALED

Rumors heard on Wall Street have been confirmed! Richard Donovan, financial wizard and tycoon, has just succeeded in gaining the controlling interest in Red & White, A & P, and Jewel Tea food store chains. No price changes are foreseen in the near future.

Class

- I, Dan Auger, do bequeath my quick temper to anyone who can handle it and stay alive.
- I, Gail Barnes, do bequeath my ability to get into all kinds of trouble and still survive through it all to my sister Judy. Have fun, Giggles, I sure did.
- I, Richard Barnes, do bequeath my ability to make it from my house to Groveton in four minutes to anyone foolish enough to try it.
- I, Nancy Brooker, do bequeath my difficulties in mathematics to anyone who needs them.
- I, Gertrude Devost Brooks, do bequeath my ability to pass in a certain Economics class to my sister Geneva.
- I, George Caron, do bequeath my long Sunday afternoon drives to Dougie White, my shop apron to my brother Roger, and my drafting seat to anyone who can keep it warm all day without getting tired of it.
- I, Lorna Cassidy, do bequeath my two desks in Mr. G's room to anyone who thinks they may need them. I sure did.
- I, Roy Charlette, do bequeath my typing ability to my brother Donald, and sister Donna. Keep the work up you two.
- I, Robert Christopher, do bequeath my being "Jack of all Trades" and "Master of None" to anyone who is fast enough to keep them guessing.
- I, Gregory Cloutier, do bequeath my ability to go parking in bucket seats and to travel as much as I do to anyone who enjoys it as much as I do.
- I, Albert Dube, do bequeath my ability to get picked up to anyone who doesn't want to keep his license.
- I, Bruce Faulkenham, do bequeath my love of mountain climbing to my brother Dennis.
- I, Karen Fogg, do bequeath my temperamental disposition to no one, because I'd pity the one who ever got it! (Right, Barb?)
- I, Lorraine Gagnon, do bequeath all the weight I lost to someone who can use it. 'How about you, Margaret!'
- I, Janice Gould, do bequeath my ability to "tell people off" in certain provoking cases to anyone who wants to suffer the embarrassment.
- I, Blanche Harris, do bequeath my seat in study hall to Nancy Ledger in hopes that she will study.
- I, Cheryl Hibbard, do hereby bequeath my ability to be a blonde all year round to anyone who thinks that blondes have more fun.
- I, Arthur Hunt, do bequeath my ability to drive a Rambler and hold my head up to anyone who drives a Rambler.
- I, Roger Irwin, do bequeath my ability not to talk much to anyone who thinks they can do the same and still survive.
- I, Richard Kingston, do bequeath my ability of getting home on time by taking Hobo Jungle to Kirby Woodward. It only takes a couple minutes to get home that way, Kirb.
- I, Alain Lamoureux, do bequeath my ability to have at least two girls with me at any one time to my brother Louie. Think you can handle them? I did it.

Will

- I, Carol Langley, do bequeath my ability to get my finger caught in my protractor to anyone in Geometry Class who thinks they can stand the embarrassment of facing Dr. Paniccia.
- I, Debbie Langley, do bequeath my pocketbook full of tissues to anyone who thinks they can supply the school with them.
- I, Richard Lurvey, do solemnly bequeath my big mouth to some underclassman. Some already have a great start.
- I, Tom Manuel, do bequeath my books to anyone who wants them. Work away!
- I, James Marshall, do bequeath nothing to nobody because I ain't got nothing to spare.
- I, Richard Marshall, do bequeath my teensy weensy parking spot to anyone with an itty bitty parking need.
- I, Karen McCormack, do bequeath to my teddy bear all my worries and my cares.
- I, Wayne Miller, do bequeath my ability to take out my car at noon without permission to anyone who can get away with it.
- I, Susan Parks, do bequeath all my dinner table arguments with my father to my sister Deb and all the fun and work I've had in school and outside to Deb and Greg.
- I, Dennis Paugh leave!
- I, Madaleen Pulsifer, do bequeath to Mr. Raudzens all my untamed art talent.
- I, Nancy Robertson, do bequeath the chance of having two brothers and a mother in the same school to anyone who likes togetherness! Ha!
- I, Edmund Robinson, do bequeath my Saturday nights to my sister Brenda, my being "Jack of all trades" to my brother Dana, and my ability to get along with others to my brother Paul. Keep it in the family, gang.
- I, James Roby, hereby do bequeath my ability to pay attention to a baseball game and not the lasses on the side benches to Dean Clark.
- I, Blaine Stevens, do bequeath my love of the good things in life to Steve Jarvis who seems to be coming along very nicely.
- I, Linda Trites, do bequeath to my cranky brother Everett my sunny disposition.
- I, Carol Woodward, do bequeath all my good times at G. H. S. to DeeDee, Wally, Jane, Bettie, Linda, Julie, Larry, Timmy, Gary and all those to come. Amen!
- I, Dawna Woodward, do bequeath my phenomenal heighth of 4'11½" to my 4'10" sister Neila, my 4'4" sister Kathy, and my 3' sister Mimi.
- I, Elaine Young, do bequeath my sign collection to my brother Tom; Pat has enough.
- I, Walter Young, do bequeath my seat on the bench in basketball to anyone who can endure the splinters and stick with it for four years.
- I, Richard Donovan, do bequeath my longevity at Groveton to anyone who loves the school and atmosphere as much as I.
- I, Sharon Devost, do bequeath all the kindnesses I have received and the good times I've had at GHS to Geneva.
